THE PHILOSOPHICAL QUARTERLY

(Published by The University of St. Andrews for the Scots Philosophical Club)

The policy of this journal is to publish work of a high academic standard in all branches of philosophy. Special attention is given to the critical surveying of recent philosophical literature, and to book reviewing over a wide field.

Contributors to the 1951 issues will include: Lord Lindsay of Birker, Mr. William C. Kneale, F.B.A., Professor G. Ryle and Mr. M. B. Foster (Oxford), Professor J. Macmurray (Edinburgh), Professor H. A. Hodges (Reading), Professors C. A. Campbell and A. L. Macfie (Glasgow), Professor H. Kuhn (Erlangen), Professor Ugo Spirito (Rome), Mr. E. E. Harris (Johannesburg). The philosophical surveys to be published in 1951 will cover important work published since 1945 on Political Philosophy, Ethics, and Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century Empiricism.

The annual subscription is £1 or $3.00. Single issues are sold at 6s. or $1.00. Drafts should be made payable to The Philosophical Quarterly, a/c, Royal Bank of Scotland, St. Andrews, Fife. MSS and all other communications, including those from prospective subscribers, should be addressed to the Editor, T.M. Knox, Professor of Moral Philosophy in The University of St. Andrews, Scotland.
